An initiative to further strengthen mentor-mentee relations was undertaken by faculty of the UG Campus, Prof. Yagbala Kapil, Prof. Parul Gupta and Prof. Anuja Roy. These faculty members, along with their mentees visited "The World Book Fair" at Pragati Maidan on 19th February 2014. With a great deal of enthusiasm, students visited and explored the collection of books at various stalls in the fair. The trip gave an opportunity to the mentors connect with their individual mentees gati Maidan 🚄 interviewed live by RJ Gaurav 300KS in an informal way. To add to the excitement mentees were

They all Arya, shared the importance of books in their lives.

Educational Trip of PGDM (2013-15) batch to New Delhi World Book Fair - 2014

Students of PGDM (13-15) Batch visited Pragati Maidan International Book Fair on 22-02-14 along with Professor G.N. Srivastava.. Book Fair was hub for intellectual fraternity of the world as most of the reputed publishers of the world participated in the fair. The books on every segment were available in the fair. The learning experience was complemented by discussion forum, events and inauguration of different books on emerging sectors. Students visited various Halls and specifically hall no-14 and 18 energized the students. Students accessed the various management books published by Sage publication and Oxford University Press. The learning journey was highly fruitful and students understood the significance of books in personal and professional life.

Industrial tour (Parle G Limited)

Students of MBA-2 Semester, Section-C , visited Parle G Limited at Bahadurgarh, Hariyana on 1st February, 2014 and were accompanied by Prof. G.N.Srivastava and Dr. Pankaj Kumar . Before departure students were given brief information about objectives of industrial tour. On arrival at Parle G HR executive of the company welcomed the Faculty members and students. The students saw the production line of the company and obtained the information about production and packaging. After completing the industry visit the executive of the company gave the information relating to functioning production and marketing strategies of the company. Interestingly , students asked the question about impact of decreasing thickness of Parle G biscuit over the volume of sale and purchase behaviour. The question – answer session was highly interactive and students raised various questions. The industrial visit served its purpose and learning journey was punched with fun as DJ platform was offered by the company for the students.

INDUSTRY VISIT

I.T.S UG Campus organized a visit to Parle-G for BBA/BCA -Ist Year Students on 21st February 2014. The objective was to give our students first hand experience regarding the processes used in a manufacturing unit. The students were taken to plant and were told in detail the intricacies of the production process, carefully and thoroughly. Various productions related steps along with detailed technicalities were provided to the students. Students' queries and doubts regarding production processes were handled effectively by Parle-G officials.

Through this visit, students could understand and correlate all the concepts taught in the class e.g. concept of work, system of mass production & mass consumption, team work etc. The students also got an opportunity to interact with the officials at Parle-G. Overall the visit was informative and interactive.

An industry visit to Yakult

An industry visit to Yakult was organized on 19th Feb, 2014 for BCA II year students. The students learnt about various production related technicalities such as standardization of process, customized stage production, entire bottling process etc. I.T.S – UG campus organized a visit to Yakult on 19th Feb, 2014 to provide our students industrial exposure. The objective behind this visit was to expose our students to a world-class production facility. The plant at Sonepat, was visited by students from BCA IInd year. The students were taken through the entire bottling process from the first stage of 'pre-form making' to blowing of bottle till the last stage i.e. packaging and storage. It was very interesting for students to know that any SKU (stock keeping unit) goes through a variety of tests to make every product a world-class one. The students were briefed about the stringent and standardized quality norms. The students learnt about the production related concepts such as assembly-line, system of mass production, Just-In-Time (JIT), Flexible Manufacturing System (FMS), Adaptable Marketing System (AMS) etc in the manufacturing plant.

Campaign against Drug Addiction Report

ITSians have now identified the underlying pain and threat to life that comes in the disguise of pleasure and fun. Following an appeal by the Narcotics Control Bureau (Govt. of India); Parivartan Club, a CSR initiative of ITS, Ghaziabad started a campaign in the campus on 6th February, 2014 against drug addiction. Faculty coordinator of Parivartan Club, Prof. Gopal Krishna Dwivedi showed three short videos to the students followed by a detailed powerpoint presentation in which types, composition, threats and after-effects of drug-addiction were clearly elaborated. The response of the participants was worth seeing. They were noticeably emotional and stunned to see the plight of the victims of drug addiction and decided not to compromise or fall prey to such addictions that mar the beauty of life and spoil the family and future of all associated. At the end of the presentation, all participants stood up and took an oath that they will never follow this pathetic path and will always remain concerned for themselves, their families and the society. Videos and presentation provided by UNODC and NCB have been shared with the students and faculty members of ITS, Ghaziabad.

'Parivartan' - The $lum Education Programme

2nd February, 2014 activity of 'Parivartan', the Slum Education Programme, a CSR initiative of ITS, Ghaziabad was somehow a musical activity for the slum children which they enjoyed more than hundred per cent. Student volunteers with good voice Ravneet Kaur, Neha Srivastava, Shweta Sri-vastava, Rahul Singhal, Rakshit Upadhyay, Subhojit Mitra, Ravi Prasad and Chhatoi Rakesh Taunk decided that this Sunday they would make the slum children learn, practice and sing the national anthem 'Jana -Gana-Mana' as during the last activity on Republic Day, it was found that the slum children were not familiar and comfortable with the national anthem. Besides, volunteer Ravneet noticed that some of the slum children wished 'Good Morning' even in the evening. So we decided to refresh their knowledge about the timings for different salutations. They were also informed that Good Night is a parting salutation which is used at the time of departure, not at the time of meeting, arrival or welcome. This was followed by a brief on the importance of national anthem. The practice of national anthem started from line by line. Each line was repeated three times. Finally after three repetitions, everyone including volunteers, made a final performance which was really soothing, enjoyable and in today's vocabulary - 'awesome'. The class ended with the distribution of biscuits and chocolates among the children as routine. On the spot prizes were also given for the prompt and correct responses to the questions asked and the tasks given. Faculty coordinator Prof. Gopal Krishna Dwivedi accompanied the volunteers and enjoyed the visit.

'Parivartan' - The Slum Education Programme

9th February, 2014 activity of 'Parivartan' - the Slum Education Programme, a CSR initiative of ITS, Ghaziabad started with the recap of the previously learnt lessons. Parivartan volunteers Shipra Rai, Krittika,

Tarun, Subhojit Mitra, Ravi Prasad, Mashooq Ahmad Malik, Alok Sharma, Vishal Tiwari, Vishal Babu Gangwar and Chhatoi Rakesh Taunk made the young learners revise. Then they conducted the class of the day in which the asked the children to practice the table of 8 in Hindi and English both. This was followed by a poem practice session which the children enjoyed the most. The class ended with the distribution of biscuits and chocolates among the children as routine. On the spot prizes were also given for the prompt and correct responses to the questions asked and the tasks given.

GUEST TALK

Dr. K.P.Singh, renowned academician, founder Chairman – AICTE, former Vice Chancellor of VBS Purvanchal University Jaunpur, Ex Director – IIT, BHU, Varanasi delivered a Guest lecture on "Information Technology in Remote Sensing" for MCA students on 15th Feb, 2014.
