Growth & development in recent years, in context of computing & IT, have shifted the focus from classical high performance models to scale out models and resilient models like cloud computing, leveraging commodity hardware. Accordingly even software innovations like map reduce which offer a common man approach to interact with these computers, and how we use them have been shifting. Over the next few years it is expected to see different trends which will include location awareness, context awareness, Augmented Reality would be just the tip of the iceberg.

The opportunities to participate & organize a number of literary, cultural and technical activities like seminars, Conferences, workshops and inter-institutional events highlights research and development provide a platform to the students to develop the necessary academic and intellectual knowledge resulting in overall development of our students and preparing a pool of budding technocrats who are ready to deliver in the industry.
